

Anti-tax Evasion Policy

March 2019

In the light of criminal Finances Act 2017, Story Contracting Limited has adopted a statement of our corporate values on anti-facilitation of tax evasion. It is our policy to conduct all our business dealings in an honest and ethical manner. The value statement governs all our business dealings and the conduct of all persons or organisations who are appointed to act on our behalf.

We request all our employees and all who have, or seek to have, a business relationship with Story Contracting Limited and/or any member of our group, to familiarise themselves with our anti-tax evasion value statement and to act at all times in a way which is consistent with our anti-tax evasion value statement.

ANTI -TAX EVASION VALUE STATEMENT

Story Contracting Limited and subsidiaries (the "Company") has a zero-tolerance approach to all forms of tax evasion, whether under UK law or under the law of any foreign country.

Employees and Associates of the company must not undertake any transactions which:

- a) Cause the company to commit a tax evasion offence; or
- b) Facilitate a tax evasion offence by a third party who is not associate of the company.

We are committed to acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships wherever we operate and implementing and enforcing effective systems to counter tax evasion facilitation.

At all times, business should be conducted in a manner such that the opportunity for, and incidence of, tax evasion is prevented.

WHO MUST COMPLY WITH THIS POLICY?

The policy applies to all persons working for the company or any Group company or on our behalf in any capacity, including employees at all levels, directors, officers and associates (as defined below), also including ,but not limited to, agency workers, seconded workers, volunteers, interns, contractors, external consultants, third-party representatives and business partners, sponsors or any other person associated with us, wherever located.

WHAT IS THE FACILITATION OF TAX EVASION?

For the purposes of this policy:

Associates includes company contractors or an agent of the company (other than a contractor) who is acting in the capacity of an agent, or any person who performs services for and on behalf of the company who is acting in the capacity of a person or business performing such services.

Tax Evasion means an offence of cheating the public revenue or fraudulently evading UK tax, and is a criminal offence. The offence requires an element of fraud, which means there must be deliberate action, or omission with dishonest intent.

Foreign Tax Evasion means evading tax in a foreign country, provided that the conduct is an offence in that country and would be criminal offence if committed in the UK. As with tax evasion the element of fraud means there must be deliberate action, or omission with dishonest intent.

Tax Evasion Facilitation means being knowingly concerned in, or taking steps with view to, the fraudulent evasion of tax whether UK tax or tax in a foreign country by another person, or aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of that offence, where it is done deliberately and dishonestly.

Tax evasion is not the same as tax avoidance or tax planning. Tax evasion involves deliberate and dishonest conduct. Tax avoidance is not illegal and involves taking steps, within the law, to minimise tax payable (or maximise reliefs).

Tax means all forms of UK taxation, including but not limited to corporation tax, income tax, value added tax, stamp, stamp duty land tax, national insurance contributions (and their equivalents in any non-UK jurisdiction) and includes duty and any other form of taxation (however described).

WHAT EMPLOYEES AND ASSOCIATES MUST NOT DO

Employees and Associates must at all times adhere to the Story Contracting Limited anti-tax evasion value statement and must ensure that they read, understand and comply with this policy.

It is not acceptable for team members and associates to:

- a) Engage in any form of facilitating Tax Evasion or Foreign Tax Evasion.
- b) Aid, abet, counsel, or procure the commission of Tax Evasion offence or Foreign Tax Evasion offence by another person;
- c) Fail to promptly report any request or demand from any third party to facilitate the fraudulent Evasion of Tax by another person, in accordance with this policy; or
- d) Engage in any other activity that might lead to a breach of this policy; or
- e) Threaten or retaliate against another individual who has refused to commit a Tax Evasion offence or a Foreign Tax Evasion offence or who has raised concerns under this policy.
- f) An offence under the law of any part of the UK consisting of being knowingly concerned in, or taking steps with a view to, the fraudulent evasion of tax.

PREVENTION THROUGH VIGILANCE

There is not an exhaustive list of Tax Evasion opportunities. At a more general level, the best defence against Tax Evasion and facilitation of Tax Evasion remains the vigilance of our employees and associates and the adoption of a common-sense approach supported by a clear whistleblowing procedure. In applying common sense, team members must be aware of the following:

- Is there anything unusual about the manner in which an Associate of the company is conducting their relationship with the company or the third party (usually a customer or supplier)?
- Is there anything unusual about the customer's or Associate's conduct or behaviour in your dealings with them?
- Are there unusual payment methods?

Unusual payment methods and unusual conduct of third parties with Company Associates can be indicative that a transaction may not be as it seems.

HOW TO RAISE A CONCERN

Our employees have a responsibility to take reasonable action to prevent harm to Story Contracting Limited and we hold our employees accountable for their actions and omissions. Any actions that breach the Criminal Finances Act and the tax laws of wherever we operate brings harm to Story Contracting Limited and will not be tolerated.

You are responsible for properly following Story Contracting Limited policies and procedures. These should generally ensure that all taxes are properly paid. If you are ever asked by anyone either inside or outside our company to go outside our standard procedures, this should be reported to your line manager or Divisional director without delay, as someone may be attempting to evade tax.

WHAT HAPPENS IF AN EMPLOYEE PREFERS, FOR COMMERCIAL REASONS, NOT TO REPORT THEIR SUSPICIONS?

This should never happen. If there is any suspicion of an intention to evade tax and the transaction nevertheless finalised, the company can be criminally prosecuted and will be subject to a large fine.

Employees who are found not to have reported any suspicions where tax evasion has subsequently been proved to have occurred will be subject to disciplinary action as per normal company procedures.

WHAT HAPPENS IF AN EMPLOYEE IS FOUND TO BE KNOWINGLY INVOLVED IN TAX EVASION?

Any employee found to be knowingly involved in tax evasion will be subject to disciplinary action as per normal company procedures.
